

Protecting against Female Genital Mutilation and caring for survivors

How to develop and implement FGM services and safeguarding measures in the NHS in your region

Thursday 26 February 2015
Ealing Town Hall, New Broadway, W5 2BY
West London
9am - 4.30pm

Run in partnership with the Home Office FGM Unit

Who should attend?

- Commissioning managers / leads
- Safeguarding leads/LSCB members
- FGM Trust leads
- Health and Wellbeing Board chairs / Public Health leads
- Local authority leads / councillors
- Community groups & 3rd sector organisations
- GPs, midwives, nurses, health visitors, school nurses, others
- Other multi-disciplinary professionals

What?

- Showcasing good local practice
- Introducing Health Education England e-learning sessions
- Commissioning framework for FGM services
- Examples of best practice safeguarding processes
- FGM data collection - prevalence and enhanced datasets
- Survivors' story through drama and music

FREE to attend

Search 'FGM Prevention' on www.eventbrite.co.uk to register

#EndFGM