

The story of sexual health advising in the UK

Hilary Piercy

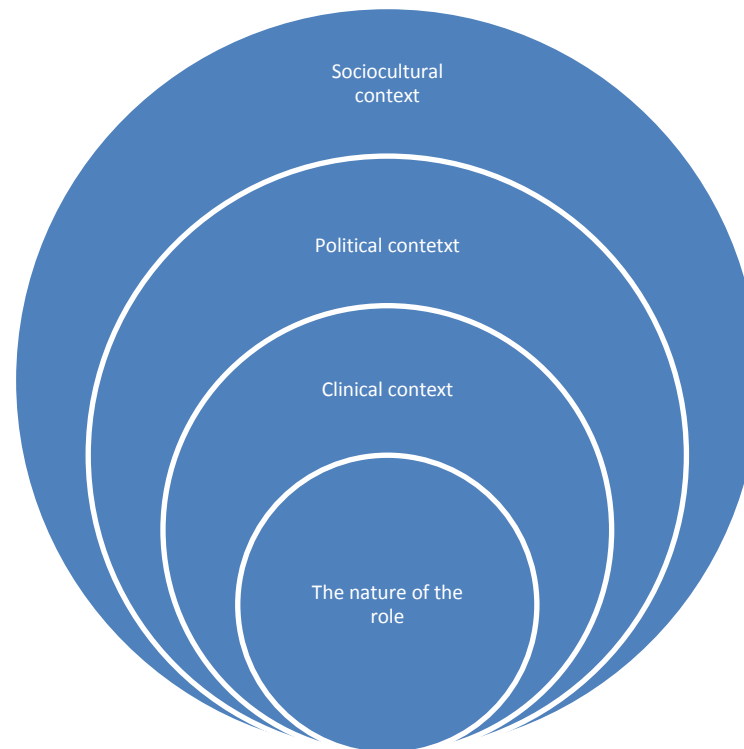

Overview

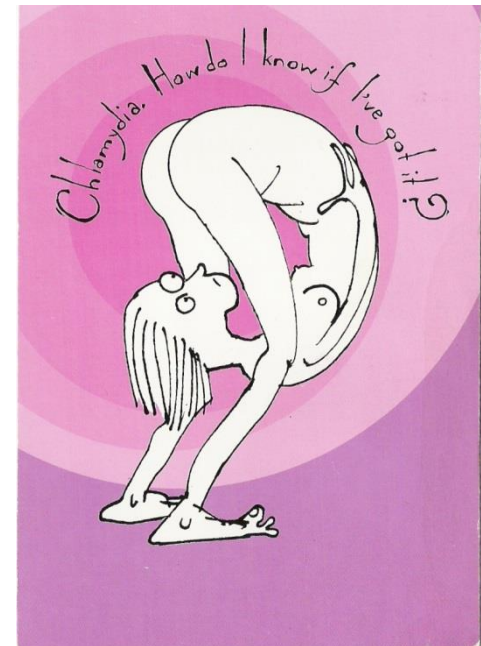

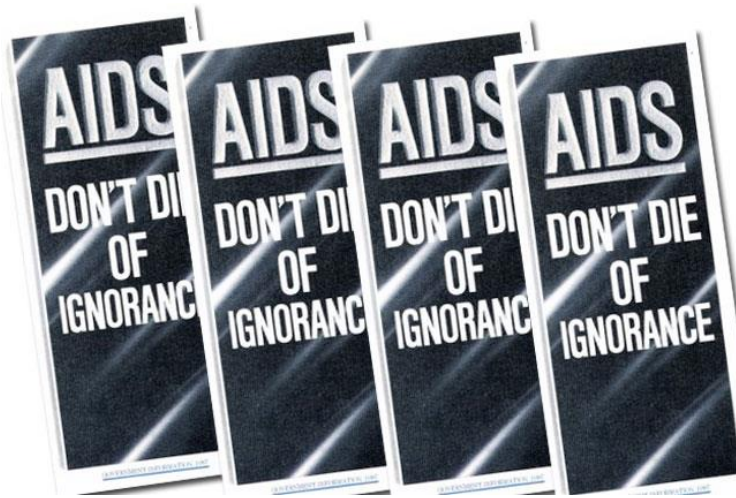

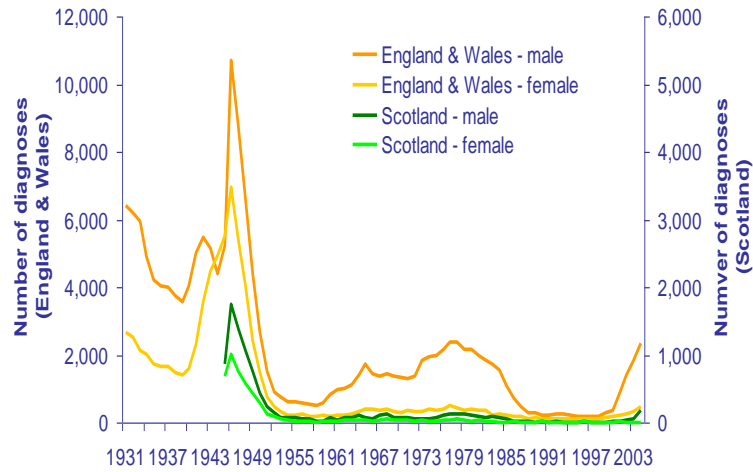

- What am I planning to do?
- Why am I planning to do it
- How am I planning to do it
- A request for involvement

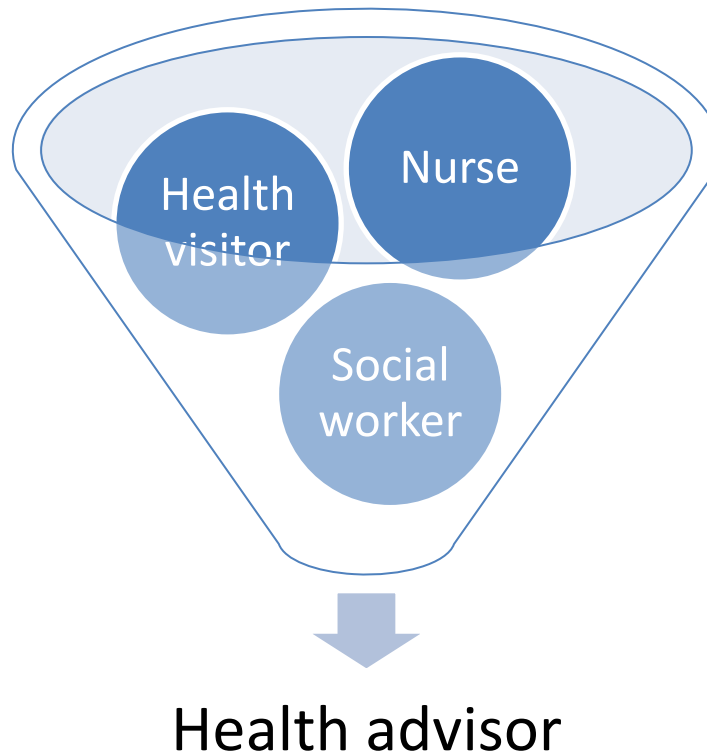

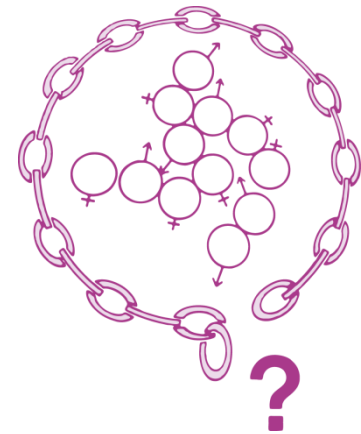

Changing with the times

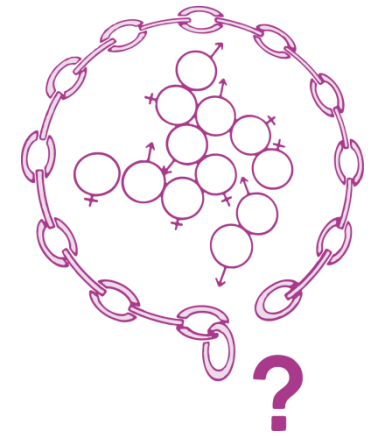

Syphilis diagnoses 1931 - 2003

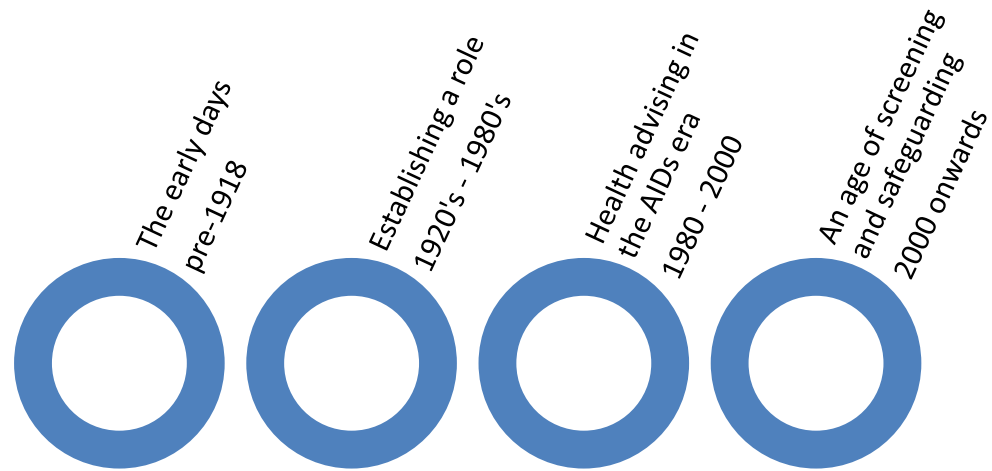

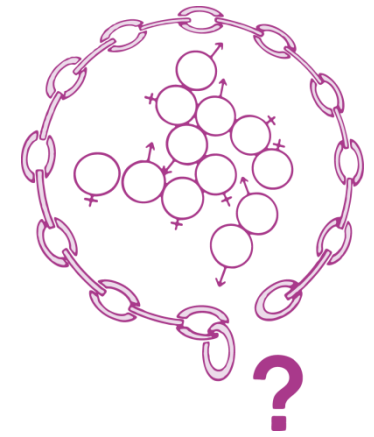

Changing requirements

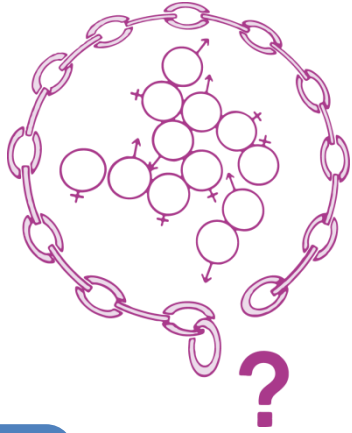

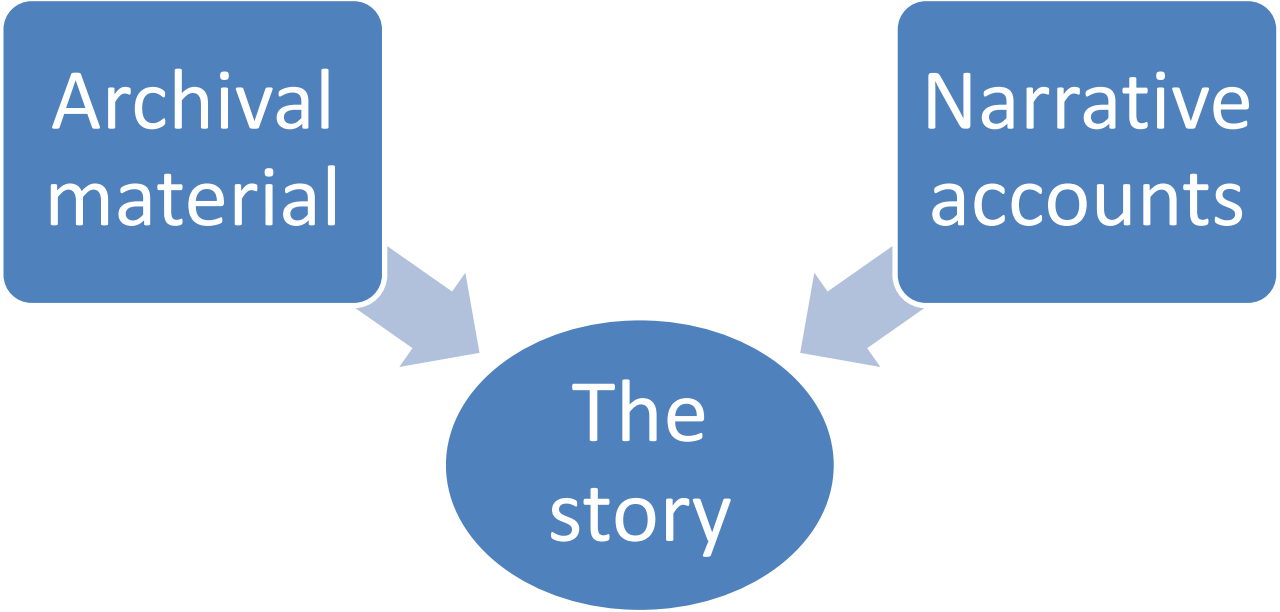

Changing over time

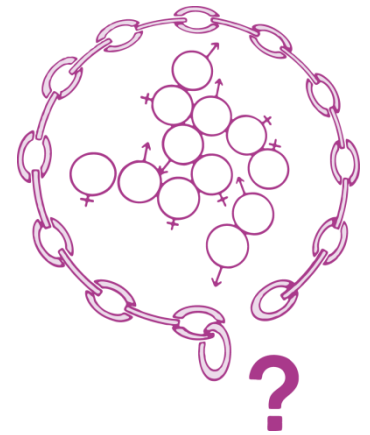

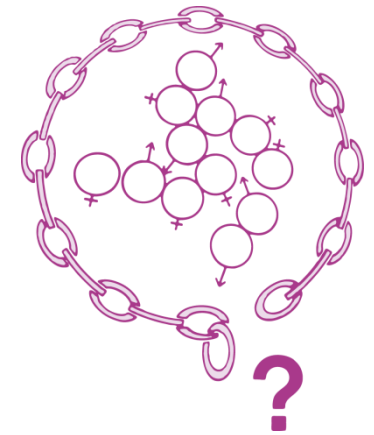

Aim of the project

To trace development of the health advising role from its origins and explore the ways in which it has evolved over time in response to the changing needs and priorities around the treatment and prevention of sexually transmitted infections.

If you are willing to share your memories and contribute to the fascinating story of health advising - please get in touch

thank you

Hilary Piercy

h.piercy@shu.ac.uk